

LIVING

The best bottles of bubbly under $20

By Hannah Sparks

December 29, 2017 | 7:27pm

A sip of pricey Champagne is a fine way to toast in the new year. But if something like a 1978 Dom Pérignon “P3” magnum — available for $3,495 at Midtown’s Sherry-Lehmann Wine & Spirits — is too rich for your bank account (thanks, Black Friday!), there are plenty of budget-bubbly options with which to welcome 2018.

We asked wine buyers and merchants around town for their sparkling picks under $20.

Raventós i Blanc Blanc de Blancs Cava Brut, 2015, $19.99: This wine is both a brut and vintage, which is saying a lot for the pricepoint. "It drinks a lot higher end than [its price]," says Neil Weinstock, general manager at Columbus Wines & Spirits (730 Columbus Ave.; 212-865-7070), who himself has been drinking this cava for about 20 years. "This is the crème de la crème."

FILED UNDER ALCOHOL, CHAMPAGNE, DRINKING, NEW YEAR'S EVE, WINE