

Here are the best sparkling wines to buy for New Year's Eve

Whether you'd rather save on Cava or splurge on Champagne, we've got your celebration covered.

Dec. 31, 2019, 2:12 PM CET / Source: TODAY

By Jennifer Foucher

Our editors have independently selected the items featured in this article because we think they're worth knowing about. Shop TODAY has affiliate relationships so we may get a small share of the revenue if you buy something through our links.

Whether you're looking to splurge or save for your 2020 celebration, Jennifer Foucher, head sommelier at Fiola in Washington, D.C., is here on TODAY to fill your glass with the best bubbly for your price point. Here are her top picks to get your party poppin'.

Affordable Bubbly

Bisol Prosecco Brut, $14, Drink Dispatch

This wine comes from some of the best plots in the hills of Veneto in northern Italy. It is made from the glera grape, so the wine is fruit driven which makes for easy sipping with classic flavors of green apples and pears.

Raventos i Blanc Blanc de Blanc 2017, $21, Wine

This wine comes from northern Spain and uses the French term "blanc de blancs," meaning a white wine made from white grapes. It's biodynamically grown, and it's also very dry, fresh, complex, plus it has a great structure and so it's great for mimosas.

Mid-Range Bubbly

1. Roederer Estate Brut

Roederer Estate Brut

$19.98

 DRIZLY

Since California has become a great place to grow grapes for sparkling wine production, Champagne producers like Louis Roederer have expanded into this region bringing their expert winemaking and experience with them. This is a blend of chardonnay and pinot noir grapes. Grown in the Anderson Valley, it's a more fruit-forward style with ripe flavors.

2. Lucien Albrecht Cremant d'Alsace Brut Rose

Lucien Albrecht
Cremant d'Alsace Brut
Rose

$24.99

WINE.COM

$17.99

DRIZLY

Though the tradition of making sparkling wine in Alsace goes back a long way, Cremant d'Alsace only created its own appellation in the 1970s. This sparkling rosé coming from northeastern France is made from pinot noir; it's the perfect gift for bubbly lovers.

3. Ca' del Bosco Cuvee Prestige

Ca' del Bosco Cuvee Prestige

$29.99
~~$42.99~~

 GARY'S WINE

The most prestigious area in Italy for sparkling wine production, Franciacorta in Lombardia, uses chardonnay and pinot noir grapes just as they do in Champagne, but with the addition of pinot bianco, or, as the French would call it, pinot blanc. It's a very good example of elegant sparkling wine that coming from Italy these days.

Splurge Bubbly

1. Pierre Gimmonnet et Fils Extra Brut 1er Crus

Pierre Gimmonnet et
Fils Extra Brut 1er Crus

$39.94
~~$52.94~~

 JJ BUCKLEY

This grower-producer (which means that the grapes for this wine are grown by the estate that also makes the wine) are all chardonnay and come from a famous village in the Côte des Blancs. The wine is very crisp and lean with lots of stone and citrus notes.

2. Billecart-Salmon Brut Rose

Billecart-Salmon Brut
Rose

$79.99
~~$99.99~~

 WINE.COM

Famous for the pretty pink label, Billecart-Salmon is still a family owned winery. This bubbly is made of chardonnay, pinot noir and pinot meunier grapes. It's very elegant, with flavors of strawberry and raspberry, making it a classic choice for any celebration.

3. Dom Perignon 2008

Dom Perignon 2008

$179.97
~~$190.00~~

WINE.COM

Dom Perignon, which was originally launched by Moët & Chandon in 1936, is arguably one of the world's most famous Champagnes. The pinot noir and chardonnay grapes used in this blend come from some of the finest vineyards in all of the Champagne region. Nothing says "it's time to party" quite like a bottle of Dom.

Shop TODAY takes care to recommend our favorite items chosen by trusted experts and editors, as well as inform our readers of great deals, customer favorites, and newsworthy products from around the web. For more on our process, click here.

Jennifer Foucher
